Dear Earle:

The Association has recently been requested to send a representative to the inauguration of William Terril Higdon as President of Graceland College on Saturday, October 15.

On behalf of President Wilder, I am writing to ask whether you will be able to serve as the representative of the Association on this occasion. I am enclosing the information which we have received.

Please let me know whether or not you can serve as our representative. If you cannot, you are authorized to send another member of the Association in your place.

I regret to say that the Association cannot pay the expenses of its representatives at affairs of this type.

With best wishes, I am

Yours,

HARRY M. GEHMAN
Executive Director
