Dear Professor Gillam:

The book review which you have contributed to the AMERICAN MATHEMATICAL MONTHLY has just been sent to the printer. You will receive galley proof within a few weeks. As soon as you receive galley proof, please read it with the greatest of care. Indicate any corrections which you feel should be made and return within forty-eight hours by air mail one set of corrected proofs to:

Editorial Department
Mathematical Association of America
SUNY at Buffalo (University of Buffalo)
Buffalo, New York 14214

Reprints are not ordinarily supplied to authors of book reviews. If, however, you do wish to have reprints of your review, please notify us when you return the proofs. The cost of 50 reprints is about $16.00. Additional hundreds cost about $12.00 per hundred. These are prices for reprints of articles of less than four pages without covers.

Is the address given above correct or have you moved? If you have moved and the receipt of galley proof might be delayed, please let us have your new address at once so that we may have galley proof sent to your new address.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

RAOUL HAILPERN
