Dear Prof. Hanson,

The Action of the Finance Committee seems to be a positive step toward cooperation. It was one of the suggestions that we had made and we thought it a reasonable one. If the Board of Directors see fit to endorse this suggestion, we can move on to discuss our other concerns; the problem with conflicting dates, assignment of facilities which closer resemble our needs, and our desire for a more ambitious program than the Academy has usually given us time for. It would seem that some compromises could be made to deal with these interests.

Sincerely,

A. M. Fink
