Dear Jim:

You are of course right that it is impossible for us to wait until mid February for a commitment at Coe. I will inform Hanson about that. He seems confused about whether he really wants us to meet with the IAS or not. I read all kinds of mixed signals in his letter.

At the very least, we should immediately explore the possibilities of alternate locations, preferably in Cedar Rapids. I would much appreciate it if you or A. M. would make the contacts.

Sincerely,
