Dear Professor Canfield,

Your letter was notification of my election to an office in the Iowa Section of the M.A.A. I have never been happy in holding such an office since it often leads to the occupant's having to conduct a public meeting. To do so has been a personal problem for me. If the present office does not involve that responsibility, I will be glad to serve in whatever way I can. If the office does involve public speaking I believe I should have to refuse to serve.

It is altogether fitting that you represent the Iowa Section at the meeting in August. My plans will tie me up rather completely this summer.

Sincerely,

R. S. Jacobsen
