

Dr. Lisa W. Kay is a Foundation Professor of Statistics and the current Faculty Senate Chair at Eastern Kentucky University, where she has served as faculty advisor for the ECU Statistics Club since 2002 and for ECU's chapter of Mu Sigma Rho since its inception in 2009. She is currently the Past President of Mu Sigma Rho, the national statistics honorary society, and the Chair of the American Statistical Association's Section on Statistics and Data Science Education.

