

UNIVERSITY OF COLORADO, BOULDER

Department of Mathematics

September 13, 1984

Dear Dave:

I received your note yesterday, saying that you thought Lida Barrett could not come. I phoned her this morning. She can come; it's been a comedy of misunderstandings as to why you keep thinking she can't come and why I thought she could come. She said she would write a letter ~~very~~ right away.

Wait till you get a letter; she said she would send a copy of the letter to you and Skillman. I'm a strong believer in not doing anything until one has something in writing. When you get the letter, and it says she is coming, then write whatever you consider appropriate to Eileen Poiani. A summary of the various misunderstandings might be possible. Lida Barret knew a tentative invitation was given to her/^(EP) and that has been one of the complicating circumstances.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Rebekka Struik".

Rebakka Struik