Name of Candidate: Dr. George S. Donovan

Present Position: Professor, Metropolitan State College, Denver, 1968-present.

Education: University of Massachusetts (B.S.), University of Colorado (M.A. and Ph.D.).

MAA Activities: Director of R. M. Visiting Lecture Program (1973-1977); Chair of Section (1982-1983); Served at hospitality desk at MAA National Meeting in Denver.

Other Professional Activities: Sabbatical at Denver University (Spring, 1986); Co-author of text: Trigonometry with Calculators, Prindle, Weber and Schmidt, 1980.

Name of Candidate: Dr. John P. Gill

Present Position: Professor, University of Southern Colorado, Pueblo, 1971-present.

Education: University of Georgia (B.S.), University of Alabama (M.A.), Colorado State University (Ph.D.).

MAA Activities: Chair of Section (1980-81); Represented Section at MAA meeting in Toronto (1982).

Visiting Appointments: Colorado State University (Summer, 1972).

Other Professional Activities: International Conference on Pade Approximants, etc. (1972); Vice President of U.S.C. Sigma Xi Chapter (1973) - President (1975); U.S.C. delegate to Sigma Xi National Meeting (1975); Invited paper at seminar - AMS meeting in Toronto (1982); Author of papers in linear fractional transformations, analytic theory of continued fractions, limit periodic iteration.

Name of Candidate: Dr. Ruth Rebekka Struik

Present Position: Professor, University of Colorado, Boulder, 1961-present.

Education: Swarthmore College (B.A.), University of Illinois (M.A.), New York University, (Ph.D.).

MAA Activities: Member for over 20 years; MAA lecturer for over 20 years; Chair of Section (1984-85); Co-ordinator of joint CCTM-MAA lecture program.

Other Professional Activities: Published articles on group theory, history of math, and long distance commuting.