Dear Bill:

Thanks for the check for the short course and the advertisement in the newsletter. There will be an advertisement for the course in the next issue of FOCUS and I will be sending advertisements and reservation forms to department chairs this week. With that finished I can sit back and wait for people to respond. Announcements and registration forms will also be available at our spring meeting.

While I am not sure if it is necessary, I am enclosing a financial summary of last summer's short course.

Sincerely,

Gary Grefsrud, Professor
Department of Mathematics
