

Business Meeting
Rocky Mountain Section MAA
April 22, 1989

Governor's report by John Gill:

John attended the summer meeting in Providence. Gerald Alexanderson is the new executive secretary. The MAA approved awards for outstanding teachers. The MAA has decided to renovate its headquarters. The national dues will increase next year, student dues will be about one-third of the regular rate. Marsha Sward is the new executive director of MAA. The MAA endorses the concept of standards of the NCTM if not the details.

Treasurer's report by Bill Emerson:

The treasury has approximately $3000 (see the financial report). The preregistration fee is $5, about 25 people took advantage of the reduction from the on-site registration fee of $10.

Elections:

For chair-elect, Gail Gliner of Metropolitan State College defeated Mike Martin of Denver University. For program chairs, Ben Roth and Les Shader were unanimously elected.

Student memberships:

Students will continue to receive memberships for presenting papers at the meetings

It was moved and approved that the section extend its thanks to Ft. Lewis College for hosting the meeting.

Announcements:

There will be a short course on data base management systems at Ft. Lewis College. There was a discussion about an official policy for short courses. The opportunity exists, Ft. Lewis has about $750 available for start up funds from their previous short courses.

The Western Scholars Program recognizes outstanding secondary math teachers in a 5 week summer program.