

Summary of changes to the bylaws of the Texas Section

Addition: Article III Avoiding Implicit Bias.

Change: All references to Section Governor are replaced with Section Representative to the MAA Congress (Section Representative).

Change: The list of officers of the section is expanded from Chair, Chair-elect, and Secretary/Treasurer to include everyone on the Executive Committee except the Section Representative.

Addition: A new position, Section Reporter, is added to the Executive Committee.

Change: The position of Webmaster is retitled Digital Media Editor to describe the position better.

Change: The election cycle and duties and responsibilities for each position are more clearly delineated.

Change: The Nominating Committee is now more fully described with requirements for membership. The committee must have one member from each level.

Addition: The representatives to the CAMT Board of Directors are now included in the bylaws with a requirement of a report being submitted annually to the Section.

Addition: The leadership team for the Texas Section NExT program is now included in the bylaws with a requirement of a report being submitted biannually to the Section.

Change: The selection committees for the section awards have additional members added on an annual basis to help avoid implicit bias.
